

WESTERN RIVER STILL IN FLOOD

DES MOINES OVER RECORD

Great Damage Reported in Iowa Capital—Kansas Rivers on a Rampage.

Des Moines, Iowa, May 29.—The river reached its highest point at 3 o'clock this morning, when it recorded 21 feet and three-tenths above low water mark. This is the highest mark upon the records of the government by four inches. It is believed that further danger from floods are now over, as reports from various points in the state are to the effect that the rivers have begun to recede. In the Des Moines valley, from Spirit Lake to the Missouri river, the entire bottoms were covered with water and the damage to the corn crop is incalculable. In Fort Dodge, Boone, Madrid, Des Moines, Ottumwa and other points, fully 500 homes have been inundated by the waters. In Des Moines alone the damage will reach $500,000. In South Des Moines the bottoms present a solid sheet of water with houses dotted here and there, some turned over and others with their chimneys only extending above the water line.

Specials from Vanmeter and other points on the Raccoon river above here are to the effect that the river continues to rise. While the Des Moines is receding slowly above the confluence with the Raccoon it is rising below. South and southeast Des Moines are threatened with devastation as a result of leaks in the levees in this section, hundreds of homes are surrounded with water and a break in North Des Moines early today inundated Central Place, containing upward of 200 fine residences.

DEBACLE IN KANSAS.

Kansas City, Mo., May 29.—Nearly four inches of rain fell in portions of Kansas last night, adding to the already bank-full streams and rendering the flood in that state most serious. Today hundreds of telegraph poles are down, and telegraphic communication with many points is shut off. Trains are delayed in every direction and on several lines traffic is almost entirely at a standstill. In Kansas City, Mo., the Missouri river is bankfull and still rising and has already caused great damage to business houses. Other property in the bottoms and along the Kaw river, west from its mouth at Kansas City, Kan., the low lands for miles are under water, hundreds of families have been rendered homeless and thousands of acres of grain are under water.

RAILWAYS TIED UP.

Topeka, Kan., May 29.—The floods have thoroughly disorganized train service in Kansas. General superintendent Furber said today: "Our system is in a deplorable condition. Colorado river is tied up at this point, four trains are at MacFarland and one at Wichita. Another train is tied up somewhere on the Harrington branch. The wires are nearly all down. Only the St. Joseph line to Topeka is working. At Durham the Cottonwood river flooded the depot and ran the agent out. At Keats a cloud burst at midnight put the town under three feet of water. Our bridge at Fairbury, Neb., is out of line as is the bridge at Manhattan." The Union Pacific system is in little better condition. At Calhoun Bluffs, east of Topeka the tracks are covered. The water is over the first floors of the business houses at St. Mary's. The floods of the Kawriver bridge at Rossville is covered. The tracks of the Union Pacific west of Topeka are under two feet of water in many places between here and Wamego. The Santa Fe is unable to pass Lakeview on the main line. A train arrived at Topeka at 9:30 from Kansas City over the Ottawa cut-off to Emporia then east over the main line to this city. The Santa Fe will get a train west to Emporia to connect through trains which will be run over the Ottawa cut off. At Topeka the river is the highest in its history, covering many homes along the lower districts and the Rock Island tracks. At noon the Santa Fe railroad had been notified that a four foot rise was coming down the Kansas river and is now near Wamego fifty miles west of here on the Union Pacific. The Union Pacific bankment is all that is keeping the Kaw river from sweeping north to Topeka, but despite the use of bags of sand the dyke is weakening. The river threatens to enter the old channel north of Topeka and make an island of that part of the city. The river has not used this channel for forty years and it is crowded with residences. The people living there have been warned and are preparing to move. The water already is flowing down many streets in North Topeka.

DAMAGE IS IMMENSE.

Abilene, Kas., May 29.—The flood waters from Mud creek, swelled from twelve hours' rain, swept through this city last night, doing damage estimated at $100,000. Chapman, Solomon, Talmage, near-by towns, fared equally as bad as Abilene and the loss to the country is tremendous. Abilene has no water, lights, postoffice service or newspapers. The damage here is estimated at $100,000.

The water in the principal streets of Abilene is four feet deep. A three-story brick building, containing the stores of Monick & Taylor and Mrs. Clark, the Allen commercial college and several offices, collapsed to a heap, having been weakened by the high water, and several other buildings are in a dangerous condition. The press rooms of the newspapers and the basement of Case's department store are under water. The Union Pacific, Santa Fe and Rock Island tracks entering the city have been washed away and 200 houses are submerged, scores of families having fled to higher ground. Rice, Johnston & Nicolay's lumber yard caught fire from lime and was destroyed. Loss, $12,000.

On the Smokey Hill bottoms 10,000 acres are under water and persons are being rescued in boats.

TRAFFIC PARALYZED.

Oklahoma City, Okla., May 29.—Three and one-quarter inches of rain last night, following four inches Saturday night, increases the gravity of the flood situation in Oklahoma. The North Canadian river is higher than ever known and additional floods are coming. There is no danger to the cities and towns on the river, but railroads are heavy losers. Traffic east and west is paralyzed. The Choctaw is shut out of this city from the east by the destruction of tracks along the river. The Rock Island west is entirely laid out, no trains having moved since Sunday, and the waters are increasing. The Oklahoma City and Western's tracks at Chickasaw are submerged. There have been no trains into this city on the last named road since Sunday. The Missouri, Kansas and Texas tracks are badly damaged and two bridges near Oklahoma City will be almost a total loss.

VALLEY IS DESOLATED.

Skiddy, Kas., May 29.—Thirteen inches of water has fallen in Clarke Creek valley in the past twelve hours. The whole valley is desolated. Many houses in Skiddy were washed away and crops have been ruined. Skiddy is a town of 200 persons in Morris county, central Kansas, in a rich farming district.

TWENTY SHOVELERS GO OUT ON STRIKE

Barker Asphalt Company Workmen Demand Increase of 25 Cents a Day.

About twenty shovelers employed by the Barker Asphalt Paving company on East Washington street went out on a strike at noon today when their demand for an increase of 25 cents per day in wages was refused by the paving company. The Barker company has East Washington street cleaned from Calhoun to Lafayette and is engaged in putting in the foundation for the new pavement. Work was progressing apparently satisfactorily until 12 o'clock today, when about a score of the men, who have been receiving $1.50 per day, made a demand for $1.75. It was refused and the strike followed. There was no disorder.

Foreman Grace stated this afternoon that the increase would not be granted to the strikers and that a gang of men were now on the way from Indianapolis to this city to go to work. The company, he said, was paying some of its men $1.75 per day, but they were the best men and were able to earn that sum.

Mr. Grace says the matter is a trivial affair and will in no wise cripple the company in its Fort Wayne work. The men, on the other hand, assert that the work is very hard, that it is certainly worth $1.75, and they propose to hang out until the advance is granted. There was no trouble at any other point.

Miss Grace Bove has returned from Plymouth and will go to Rome City to spend the summer.

JACKSON IS QUIET UNDER GUN RULE

No Further Attack is Made on the Jail by Jett's Mountain Friends

PLACE CLOSELY GUARDED

Jury to Try Jett and White is Not to be Drawn from Breathitt County.

Louisville, Ky., May 29.—Advices from Jackson, Ky., this morning indicate that all is quiet. There was some firing during the night, but nobody was hurt. All mountain passes into the little city were guarded during the night by outposts of militia. Rumor is persistent that the mountaineers are gathering and will make an attempt to release Jett and White, and the vigilance of the authorities has been doubled. The Gatling and Hotchkiss guns are now in places believed to be the most advantageous to the troops and for the protection of the jail.

AROUNDED THE MOUNTAIN MEN.

What is believed to be the first accurate information regarding an attempt to release Jett and White came in this morning. It is said that several of the mountain desperadoes have been riding night and day since the two prisoners were lodged in jail, here spreading the news of the capture and urging the mountaineers to be prepared to rescue their comrades. The military authorities here have no further intelligence from the mountaineers and although many efforts have been made to secure something more definite, it has been fruitless.

CORRESPONDENTS IMPOUNDED.

It has been decided to keep an outpost on all roads and mountain passes not only at night but during the day. This probably will result in a call for more troops and the field of operations is thus widened. All newspaper correspondents have been put in a tent at the military camp. They were formerly stopping at a little hotel here, but were brought in yesterday under orders of the military authorities. None of the writers is allowed to file anything for his paper after dark and all must remain in camp from dark to sunrise, under military supervision. Several of the correspondents who tried to send stories to their papers of the shooting two nights ago were placed under arrest and returned to their tent.

The telegraph office will remain open at night hereafter until ordered to close by the superintendent of the company in Louisville but the correspondents cannot go to the office which is in the Lexington and Eastern railroad depot on account of the military rules.

DECIDE AS TO JURY.

Attorneys for both sides in the Jett and White cases agreed this morning to allow a jury to be drawn from another county than Breathitt. When court convened, Judge Redwine, over the objection of Mr. McNeal of the defense, set the case for Monday, June 1, when the commonwealth will make its announcement. The trial will not be entered into then unless the conditions are considered favorable by both sides. Judge Redwine declined to remove Elisor Little until his term of office expires tomorrow, and who cannot act in the selection of a jury for the case. Both sides will try to agree on what county a jury will be drawn from. Court then adjourned until tomorrow. Sheriff Calahan said today that he would not act in the assassination cases. Another elisor will be appointed for them. Commonwealth has proposed nine names for elisor and the defense 25. No agreement was reached by counsel.

TO CONFER WITH GOVERNOR.

Louisville, Ky., May 29.—A special from Frankfort says: Colonel Williams, in charge of the military forces at Jackson, will be here this afternoon for a conference with the governor over the situation in Breathitt county. Governor Beckham said this morning: "I have just been in communication over the telephone with Colonel Williams, who is in Lexington. He informs me that the situation at Jackson is one of quiet and that the forces there are sufficient. He says no attack was made on the jail on the night of the 27th, but that a sentry fired at an object which did not stop when challenged. Killing a cow."

"The situation has been exaggerated and our state is being done an injustice. The officers are doing everything in their power to enforce the law, convict criminals and establish peace and order. No reinforcement of troops has been requested or is needed."

STROBEL ARGUES AGAINST MOTION

He Shows Familiarity With Legal Procedure—News of the Courts.

Ambrose Strobel appeared in the circuit court this morning and indicated that, aside from a well grounded knowledge of the component parts of a batch of bread, he is somewhat versed in legal lore. He filed a suit some time ago, in which he alleged in a custom-made complaint of which he was the sole architect, that Roman Zoellers and Louis Morz had wrongfully, maliciously and otherwise obtained a judgment against him in Justice Rayhouse's court, that this had been the means of putting him out of the baking business, and that the parties against whom the action was filed had retained his tools and deprived him of the means of making a livelihood.

The complaint contained five paragraphs and is a very lucid recital of his woes to persons who understand it, but the Leonards, who were employed to defend the case, unfeelingly filed a motion in which they asked the court to strike the complaint from the docket and place it upon exhibition in the curio room.

Strobel's appearance this morning was to argue against this motion, and the court, after hearing him for an hour, took the matter under advisement. He failed to designate why the complaint should not be stricken from the docket and insisted upon explaining to the court that he had been reduced to penury by the proceeding filed against him, and that his clothes were worn out, he was compelled to half-sell his own shoes, and, as a parting shot, informed his honor that he had reached such an abject stage of want that he had been only recently compelled to purchase a pair of fifteen-cent socks on time.

COURT NOTES.

The will of Mary L. Wagner has been filed in the circuit court. She devised all her personal property to her children, Elmer and Alice, to be held by their grandmother, Charlotte Marquardt, until they are of legal age. Eli Wagner, her husband, is bequeathed a lot on East Lewis street and the home on the same street during his life.

The case of Wilbur A. Ross against Charles W. Norcross has been appealed from Justice Skelton to the circuit court.

Forty-six applications for liquor licenses have been filed with Auditor Smith and will come up for a hearing at the session of the county commissioners Monday.

The will of William W. Smith has been offered for probate. Under its provision the wife retains all personal and real property during her life and at her death it is to be divided equally between the children. Judge Heaton is hearing a plea for a modification of the decree of divorce granted to Blanche Joost from her husband, Albert Joost. She was granted a divorce, alimony and the custody of the child, and the action of today seeks to secure the custody of the child for the husband.

The suit of Joseph W. Bell against Henry G. Sommers and others has been dismissed.

LIQUOR DEALERS HOLD A MEETING

Saloon Proprietors Discuss the Matter of Forming Protective City League.

Retail liquor dealers of the city, to the number of nearly fifty, held a meeting this afternoon at the Elektron building. Most of them were members of the Indiana Liquor league.

While none of those present were inclined to discuss the matter for publication, it is said the purpose of the meeting is the formation of a city protective league, which will look after the interests of the members. Only the dealers inside the city limits were invited into the conference.

It is said, also, that an insurance proposition was to receive some consideration at the meeting.

WILL GIVE A DINNER.

Congressman Charles B. Landis, of Delphi, who is to be the principal speaker at the Decoration day exercises tomorrow, will arrive in the city over the Wabash at 11:43 o'clock, and will be met at the depot by a reception committee composed of Congressman Robinson, John W. White and J. T. Dougall. During his stay in the city Mr. Landis is to be the guest of Congressman Robinson and Mr. Robinson will give a dinner in his honor shortly after the arrival of the visitor.

SOME FRUITS OF RECENT SHAKE-UP

Many Irregularities Found in the Postoffices of the Country.

ASSISTANTS OVERPAID

Many Big Offices Affected by the Inquiry—Nothing Criminal Implied.

Washington, May 29.—As a result of the thorough overhauling of the rosters of the postoffices throughout the country, Postmaster General Payne today announced his approval of instructions reducing the salaries of assistant postmasters at the following second-class postoffices to 50 per cent. of the salaries of the respective postmasters: Cairo, Ill.; Clarinda, Iowa; East St. Louis, Ill.; Flushing, Fredonia and Geneva, N. Y.; Freshold, N. J.; Warren, Pa.; Hagerstown, Md.; Portsmouth, N. H.; Stamford, Conn.; Stevens Point, Wis., and Ponce and San Juan, Porto Rico. He has found thirty-six officials in the postal service who hold offices under designations not authorized by law and directed that their positions be changed to conform to the law governing them. They were in the following offices: New Orleans, New York, Boston, Brooklyn, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Detroit, St. Louis, Washington, Chester, Pa., Los Angeles, Louisville, Nashville, Newburgh, N. Y., Utica and Chicago. Among these designations not authorized by law are "superintendent of stations" (although there is a superintendent for each separate station), "auditor of stations," "inspector of stations," etc. Violations of the law which fix the maximum salary of clerks in second-class postoffices at $1,000 a year, except in the case of assistant postmasters, will be corrected at Leadville, Col.; New Brighton, N. Y.; Tarrytown, N. Y.; San Juan, Porto Rico. The investigation disclosed eight postoffices at which in all thirteen clerks receive more than the salaries to which their designated positions as "assistant superintendents" entitle them, and in these cases the postmaster general has directed that the salaries be accordingly reduced. This order affects two positions in Louisville, Ky.; two in New York city, one in Brooklyn, one in Philadelphia and Detroit, four in St. Louis and two in Boston. The maximum salary of these positions by law is a stated percentage of the salary of the postmaster. The postmaster general has directed that such of these changes as involve corrections of violations of the law shall take effect next Monday and changes made to conform to the rules and practices of the department will be operative July 1, the beginning of the next fiscal year. Most of these excessive allowances were made during the administration of George W. Beavers, who suddenly resigned his position as superintendent of salaries and allowances immediately after the investigation of affairs of the post office department began.

Samuel A. Groff, who was arrested Wednesday for complicity in the Machen bribery case, appeared today before United States Commissioner Taylor and renewed his bond of $5,000 for his appearance June 9, when he and his brother will be given a hearing. Alvin W. Chapin went on his bond.

The rolls of the third class postoffices, the lowest of the presidential grades, are now under investigation and the authority for the compensation of the employees of every third class postoffice in the country is being carefully examined. Postmaster General Payne made the following statement regarding the changes announced today:

"In the case of the fourteen offices where the assistant postmaster is paid in excess of 50 per cent of the salary of the postmaster the action was taken to secure uniformity and better administration. "The law provides that in first class postoffices the assistant postmaster's salary shall be not to exceed 50 per cent of the salary of the postmaster, but this does not apply to assistant postmasters in offices of the second class. It is believed that the basis of compensation should be uniform in all offices of the first and second class, hence this order. The total amount saved to the government by this order will be $2,500 a year. In the seven offices where there appear to be eight persons who are receiving more than the law allows for the positions which they occupy, there may be some explanation of this fact, but in any event an order has been issued reducing the compensation to the amount authorized by law. In seventeen offices there are persons employed under designations not known to the law. There is no doubt of the activity and the efficiency of these persons and they are properly employed but wrongly classified on the pay rolls and the postmasters have been instructed to change their designation to their proper title.

WILL REPEAT PROGRAM.

The entertainment at the Emanuel school hall, given by the young people of Emmaus Lutheran church last night, was one of the most interesting and creditable entertainments of its character ever given in the city. The hall was inadequate to the demand last night and fully 200 people were unable to gain admittance. It has been decided to repeat the performance this evening for the benefit of those who were unable to see it last night and the spacious hall will again be crowded.

HIGH SCHOOL FIELD DAY.

The annual field sports of the Fort Wayne high school are being held this afternoon at the Driving park in the presence of a large gathering of the students. Candidates for athletic honors have been training for several weeks for today's meet, and the contests were spirited and interesting. The prizes are on exhibition in Aurentz's window.

FELL DOWN A STAIRS.

Marshall Hewitt had his left shoulder dislocated and sustained numerous bruises about the body by falling down the stairway leading to the hall over Neumeier's grocery, on East Jefferson street, last night. He is attended by Dr. Wallace. Mr. Hewitt is a carpenter and is employed at the Pennsylvania car shops.

O'CONNELL HAS DISAPPEARED.

Charles O'Connell, owner of the Munro cafe in Cincinnati, and well known in that city and Fort Wayne, has suddenly and mysteriously disappeared, and a receiver has been appointed to take charge of the cafe, which is one of the most popular in Cincinnati. It is believed that he has gone to New York and his friends in Cincinnati are endeavoring to persuade him to return. It is thought he has merely yielded to a fascination the big eastern metropolis has held for him since he first visited it. "Charlie" O'Connell was widely known and very popular in Fort Wayne, had prominence in the local lodge of Elks and in Cincinnati he was one of the best known members of the order.

KERR RELIEVED OF HIS EARNINGS

He Accuses "Red" Baker of Having Robbed Him Thursday.

Owen T. Kerr filed an affidavit in Justice Tancey's court this morning charging Martin, alias "Red" Baker of having robbed him of between $15 and $20 yesterday. Kerr told Prosecutor Emrick that until Wednesday afternoon he had a good place to work on a farm and that a "falling out" between him and his employer brought about the loss of his situation.

The loss preyed heavily upon his mind and he went to Edgerton, where he began a course of mental inundation to rid himself of the ever-present regret on account of his misfortune and in the course of his treatment he met Baker, who also seemed to be suffering from something that needed drowning and the two accumulated what is sometimes known as a "bun."

Kerr has a dim recollection of retreating to a sawdust pile in the rear of a saloon to sleep off the effects of his potations and of Baker's having administered a bottle of beer as a sleeping potion. When he awakened he had nothing left but a bad taste and a consuming thirst.

He complained to the authorities and an affidavit was filed in the local magistrate's court. This was given to Deputy Sheriff Miller, who apprehended Baker on the street here this morning and locked him up.

The case was called in Justice Skelton's court at 3:30 this afternoon.

SWALM CONVICTED.

George Swalm, who was on trial this morning in Justice Tancey's court on the charge of girdling trees on the farm of John W. Noyer, was convicted and fined $1 and costs. An effort is being made to have a surety of the peace warrant against him dismissed.

Thomas Travers, of this city, received minor orders this week at St. Bernard's seminary, Rochester, N. Y.

ARREST OF GOMEZ EXCITES NATIVES

Head of an Extensive Filipino Society Charged With Many Things

AIDED RIZAL INSURGENTS

Government Takes a Serious View of the Unrest Now Felt in Manila.

Manila, May 29.—Following the seizure and examination of the books of the democratic labor union, the government today arrested President Dominador Gomez, on charges of misappropriating funds, brigandage, fraudulent sales of stock and organizing an illegal association. Over a hundred thousand pesos were collected in dues and contributions. The books show a deficit of two thousand pesos.

It is believed to be possible that part of the amount was stolen before Gomez was elected president. The government charges that part of the fund was used to furnish arms and food to the insurgents, of Rizal province. This with Gomez's correspondence with Guillermo and other leaders in the field forms the basis of the brigandage charge.

The union has a membership of 15,000, is closely affiliated with the nationalist party and is strongly in sympathy with the insurgents.

The arrest of Gomez has excited the natives. No disorders have occurred but the government's action will increase the feeling of unrest in Manila which has been disturbed lately by reports of the landing of arms. The situation, however, is not serious.

Mr. Miller, he of the canine prefix, with his hand of warriors from the banks of the Miami, gave the Fort Wayne aggregation a slight lurch in the percentage column, and, to make matters worse, "Doggie" himself was the chief offender. It may have been stage fright, and it may have been anything else, but whatever it was that the former Fort Wayne manager was suffering from, it resulted in a deep, earnest, heart-to-heart talk with himself and at the end of the conference he donned an abbreviated red jacket and betook himself to the bench and watched Pitcher Hart romp around in the right garden, that had been Miller's territory for three short innings.

Captain Miller had four luscious opportunities yesterday and as many dismal failures. Two flies that soared out into the field that was under his espionage, struck in his gloved hands and bounded into the ambient, while a red-headed member of the local aggregation esconced himself on first base as a result of each of the errors. Then there were two little episodes in which the veteran figured as batsman, and six swaths in the atmosphere were the sum total of his efforts to connect with Curtis' benders.

In the second, with two men down, Freck beat out a short infield hit and completed the circuit after "Doggie" Miller failed to capture O'Connell's fly to right, and recorded the first run. Curtis was the first man up in the third and lammed one out to Miller, who again failed to connect; then Dennis singled, Lindsay followed suit.

Meyers reached first on a single in the fifth and ambled to counting territory when O'Connell smashed the ball for three bags. None of the visitors got further around the circuit than second until the ninth, when McConnell pushed one over into St. Mary's river for a home run and saved his team a shutout. The score:

NOTES OF THE GAME.

Haidt, the new outfielder, may make his initial bow in the game this afternoon.

The Connell family figured extensively yesterday. McConnell made a two-bagger and a home run and O'Connell connected for three sacks.

McConnell, who officiated at the initial bag for Dayton, carries a little the rise of six feet, and judging from his work yesterday, afternoon every inch of him is ball player.

Manager Mart Cleary will leave for Muncie in the morning with the Shamrocks for a series of games with the independent team of that city.

The attendance yesterday was not as good as the game merited. The shake-up in the team is to all appearances beneficial and the Fort Waynes are giving a good article of ball.

Murphy's connection with the team was severed last night and he was released to Duluth. Unless he has been playing for his release, Duluth has purchased a dead one.

Curtis demonstrated that he is as good a pitcher as there is in the Central league yesterday. The hits secured by the visitors were scattered, and aside from bad fielding in the second, which, however, cost nothing, he put up a magnificent game.

If it really is true that a United States senator is to be arrested, it ought to be done at once. Probably more than one wrong senator is the target of furtive and suspicious glances.

A Chicago alderman advocates the shooting of automobile tires as a means of putting a stop to scoffing. That will doubtless be found more satisfactory if less effective than shooting the automobilists.

In his speech at the Cleveland convention endorsing the candidacy of President Roosevelt, Senator Hanna said that the president had to the best of his ability faithfully kept the pledges he voluntarily made when he succeeded to the office. The senator contented himself with not stating whether he thought the president's best ability was up to expectations.

In his address at a New York meeting to protest against the Kishineff massacre Grover Cleveland thus summed up all that has been or can be said on the great question of human rights: "In the meantime let the people of the United States, gathered together in such assemblies as this in every part of the land, fearlessly speak to the civilized world protesting against every pretense of civilization that permits a mediaeval persecution, against every bigoted creed that forbids religious toleration and freedom of conscience, against all false enlightenment that excuses hatred and cruelty toward any race of men and against all spurious forms of government protection that withhold from any human being the right to live in safety and toll in peace."

Promise is made from Washington that the most sensational part of the disclosures in the postoffice department scandal is yet to come. It is said that at least one United States senator will be gravely involved in the scandal and that his arrest is likely to come about soon. One correspondent, who is noted for the accuracy of his information and his unusual means for obtaining it, says that former high officials of the department will be caught in the dragnet and that Postmaster General Payne will not proceed with reference to them until the president has returned to Washington. He hesitates to assume responsibility for making arrests that will bring men high in republican councils to the bar of a court and develop an amazing political and official scandal. Of course this view may be exaggerated, but there is probably no denying that a very rotten mess has been uncovered in the postoffice department and that it grows worse as it is gone into.

NOT SEEKING LEADERSHIP.

In the Commoner this week Mr. Bryan makes distinct announcement that he is not seeking leadership of the democratic party and to this he couples a declaration that silver is not only not dead, but that it still has a very large place in political affairs. Mr. Bryan says:

"The editor of the Commoner is not seeking leadership. Neither is he concerned about his political position in future years. The advocates of the Chicago and Kansas City platforms have shown their willingness to suffer for their conditions. Why should they pretend a confession of error when they believe that they are right? Why pretend that the issue is past when it is still upon us and must remain? Why ignore, for the sake of a few offices, a fierce conflict between money and manhood? Why delude ourselves with the belief that a real or even a nominal victory can be won by a sacrifice of the people's interest to the cold, cruel and merciless dictation of monopolists and magnates, in whom love of money has extinguished the feeling of brotherhood?"

Mr. Bryan is always both frank and honest. His disclaimer of any ambition to be his party's leader will be believed and while many admirers and followers will not agree with him as to the silver question none will gainsay that Mr. Bryan believes just what he says. As a matter of fact Mr. Bryan has never receded in any degree from his well known position on that issue.

BIG RECEPTION HELD.

A reception was held last evening in the new First Methodist Episcopal church for members and friends and the entire building was thrown open for inspection. Between the hours of 7 and 11 o'clock several hundreds of people called and were shown over the handsome new structure. Refreshments were served by the ladies and in one of the class rooms articles donated by members of the church and friends were on exhibition, among them being a handsome study table and a range by anonymous givers, sideboard by Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Macbeth, handsome chair by Mr. Pickard, besides many small articles, such as table linen, kitchen utensils, dishes, glassware, knives, forks and spoons. The sum of $64 was also contributed.

DIED AT GREENVILLE.

William Kerlin, father of W. L. Kerlin, of the Peltier undertaking establishment, died Thursday at his home in Greenville, Ohio, from kidney trouble, at the age of sixty-seven years. The funeral services will be held Sunday. Mr. Kerlin was a banker at Greenville. His son had been at his bedside for several days.

THIRTY YEARS AWAKE

Then He Quit Coffee and Found Refreshing Sleep.

Coffee causes insomnia and physicians are agreed that this is one of the most distressing of all nervous complaints. It is seldom indeed that a man who has reached the advanced age of 81 years is entirely cured of insomnia of 30 years' standing. An old gentleman of Philadelphia says: "I have been a great sufferer for many years from insomnia. I am 81 years of age and can truthfully say that until I quit coffee and commenced the use of Postum Food Coffee I had not known real refreshing sleep for more than 30 years. "Postum was prescribed for me by my doctor, who made me quit coffee. I have now used Postum for more than 2 years and its good effects are both wonderful and permanent. I regard it as a good friend not only as a remedy for coffee ills, but as a pleasant and nourishing food drink with a fine flavor. Several of my friends are using it to great advantage and think it much superior to coffee. "When the directions for making it are followed closely it cannot fail to give satisfaction." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Such evidence supports the scientific theory on which Postum is based. There is a reason.

WOLFFS'

A WORD OF EXPLANATION.

To the Editor of The Sentinel.—Capt. Allan H. Dougall was never a voluntary aspirant for the position of clerk of the waterworks board. Soon after the election some of his friends suggested that he announce himself as a candidate for the place. He declined, as he stated that at his time in life he did not desire to suffer the humiliation of defeat. He argued that he had battled long in Fort Wayne and Allen county for the republican party and endured defeat with the party too often to indulge the discomfiture of a personal defeat now. Later Edward White suggested that he be a candidate, as he deemed him just the man for the place. Captain Dougall still further declined. However, one evening a few weeks ago Mr. Tonne, the Eighth ward member of the waterworks board, called at the Eighth ward home of Captain Dougall and personally asked him to put in an application for the place. He asked him to write a formal application and forward it to Mr. White, who had just been elected president of the board. Captain Dougall still further refused to send in his application until he was assured that Mr. White was still desirous of having him made secretary of the board. He did not ask Mr. White personally for his support, but was given the assurance that Mr. White would support him. With the personal demand of Mr. Tonne Captain Dougall was thus practically endorsed by a majority of the board. Mr. Hogan was never approached on the subject. Captain Dougall did not solicit the support of a single republican for his candidacy. Although he has been in campaigns many years and knows that it is fair in war and politics, he trusted to the honor of his friends. Mr. White voted for him last night and Messrs. Tonne and Hogan voted for Mr. Urbahn. Captain Dougall was ready at any and all times to withdraw his application as a candidate for the clerkship, with the best interests of the republican party in view. John T. Dougall.

HAD A GREAT TIME AT MUNCIE.

The Eagles returned this morning at 1 o'clock from Muncie, where they attended the institution of a branch of the order and they state that the entertainment furnished by the Muncie brethren was about the best they had ever been up against. The concert was given by special request, and was listened to by thousands of people.

Sifter Stove Polish comes in a large box, with a perforated top, through which the polish is sifted just like peppering a beefsteak. It does not require soaking in water before using. A 10 cent box of Sifter Stove Polish will polish more stoves than three times its cost in any other polish. Get Sifter Stove Polish on any dealer at 5 cents a box, a 10 cent box contains more than twice as much. Insist on the yellow label with the hand.

THE COMMITTEE MAKES NO CHANGE

Street Car Franchise Favorably Recommended—Urban Gets the Place.

Contrary to the precedent set by the committee on contracts and franchises of the old council, Chairman O'Ryan, of the new committee, announced last night when the matter of granting a new franchise to the Fort Wayne Traction company had been argued that it would be considered in executive session and only the city attorney was allowed to be present. All matters that came before the old committee, which included the extension franchise for the traction company, the grant to the Fleming company and that to the heating company, were discussed in open session.

It was decided at the meeting held behind closed doors last night to recommend that the street railway company be allowed to construct all of the new contracts it has been asked to build. A delegation headed by Joe Zurbuch, former councilman from the Fifth ward, opposed the change in the route originally granted for the line that will reach the southeastern portion of the city. Under the new grant the tracks will be placed on Pontiac street from Calhoun east and the light was against the use of this square on the ground that it is only twenty-four feet from curb to curb and the property holders objected to having the pavement torn up.

J. M. Barrett appeared for the street railway company and argued that it was not good policy to carry people from the east end west to Pontiac, take them a square south, directly opposite from their objective point, and then carry them north again. S. B. Fleming supplemented the argument by the statement that the company had agreed to lay double tracks wherever they had been asked by the citizens, entailing an additional expense of $78,000, when the present facilities would have been amply sufficient to accommodate the traffic for fifteen years to come. He said he felt that in recompense for this the advantage to be derived from using Pontiac street should be granted.

URBANS GETS THE PLACE.
F. William Urbahn was appointed clerk by the members of the board of water works trustees, at the meeting held last night and the appointment marks the close of a fight that has been waged quietly since the results of the last city election became public property.

Mr. Urbahn was the first avowed candidate and secured the endorsement of a number of influential republicans before the other aspirants had had an opportunity to realize that they wanted the place. He will take charge of the office on Monday morning and for the present at least will retain Joe Biemer as his deputy for the reason that the latter is thoroughly familiar with all of the minor details of the office.

The new appointee is popular and aside from the dissatisfaction that comes to the surface as a result of the first breath of disappointment over the failure of favored candidates to land the plum, the selection is a popular one. Mr. Urbahn made the race for city clerk on the republican ticket and will enter upon his new duties with the best wishes of a host of friends.

BOARD OF WORKS.

The board of public works labored with the question of opening Alliger street last night and were aided by James A. Reilly, whose house and lots stand upon a spot that will constitute part of the street if it is opened under present specifications. Mr. Reilly commented freely and with more or less vehemence upon the proposition to confiscate his property and was seconded by Attorney John Morris, Jr. At the close of the conference the matter was again postponed.

A petition to have electric lights placed on Edgewater avenue was filed. The petition for a double instead of a single track extension of the street car lines on Huffman street was referred to the Fort Wayne Traction company.

The assessment rolls for vacating an alley east of Caroline street and an alley west of Fairfield avenue, from Organ avenue to a point 169 feet north were approved.

A resolution was adopted for a sewer in Ewing's outlots. The hearing on the resolution for cement sidewalks on Nelson street, from Berry to Washington, was laid over for a week.

The following resolutions were confirmed: Vacating the alley between Hugh and Eliza street, from McCulloch to Winter; sewer east of Fairfield avenue and south of Pontiac street and branches; sewer in the alley west of Hoagland avenue and north of Organ avenue and branches; sewer in Leith street, from Hoagland avenue to the first alley east, and branches; sewer in the alley south of Huffman street, from the alley west of Wells street to Short street; paving Clinton street, from Columbia to Main; sidewalks on the north side of Pape avenue, from the St. Mary's river to the terminus of the present walk; sidewalks on the east side of Sherman street, from High to Fourth; grading the alley south of Putnam street, from Meridian to Andrews.

Bids will be received for these improvements June 15.

The condemnation of lots on Broadway, south of the Wabash railway, for sewer purposes was rescinded. Action on the resolution for a sewer between Grace avenue and Park avenue was postponed until June 16. The contracts with C. E. Moellering & Co. and George Wilhelm for building sewers and sidewalks, awarded last week, were signed and the bonds approved.

Approval was withheld from the new plat of Freistrotter's addition, on the south side, as the board desires some changes made.

CHAMBERLAIN'S STOMACH AND LIVER TABLETS BETTER THAN PILLS.

The question has been asked, in what way are Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets superior to pills? Our answer is: They are easier and more pleasant to take, more gentle and mild in their action and more reliable, as they can always be depended upon. Then, they cleanse and invigorate the stomach and leave the bowels in a natural condition, while pills are more harsh in effect and their use is often followed by constipation. For sale by all druggists.

ATHLETES WERE A TIE.

(Huntington Herald.)
The field meet between the Huntington High school juniors and Fort Wayne High school juniors, Wednesday, was attended by severe showers that rendered it disagreeable, but there were a number to witness it. Both sides scored 36 points, making the honors even. Preston, of Fort Wayne, won the standing high jump, the fifty yard and hundred yard dash.

CITIZENS CATCH JACK THE PEEPER

Man Who Has Been Annoying Residents of East End is Captured.

Citizens of the east end who have been annoyed for several weeks by the actions of a peeper, succeeded in capturing Albert Hettler of Charles street, about 11 o'clock last night and would in all probability have administered a deserved thrashing had not Patrolman Heller put in an appearance.

After a consultation it was decided to allow Hettler to go home under the promise that he would reform his ways. A. C. Adkins, of 606 Lasalle street, John Hall, of 2010 Warsaw street and W. H. Boacher, of 2009 Warsaw street are the men who captured Hettler and they were holding an indignation meeting when the officer arrived. The reason no affidavit was filed against him is that he is a member of a respectable family and the captors did not want to heap disgrace upon them.

POLICE COURT.
O. W. Lake rode a bicycle yesterday afternoon from the master mechanic's office of the Wabash on Fairfield avenue to the Pennsylvania railroad track and this morning he paid $10.25 for the privilege. Judge Dreihelb explained that he did not like to inflict the fine but he was without option in the matter.

Frank Robinson, who failed to appear on two previous occasions when the case against him for riding without a light was called, was on hand this morning and under a plea of guilty handed over $10.25 of his earnings to Lieut. Lapp.

NOTES OF THE POLICE.
A pane of glass broken from one of the rear windows of Mrs. Florence Reynolds' millinery store on East Wayne street, led her to believe that burglars had been about. Nothing is missing from the store so far as is known.

BIG FIRE IN MONTREAL.

Montreal, May 29.—Fire early today destroyed sixty houses and a number of other buildings in the town of Marieville, twenty miles from here. The loss is estimated at $75,000. Losses estimated at $100,000 resulted from fires in this city early today. Four firemen were overcome by smoke while fighting the first blaze in the plant of the Montreal Cotton and Wool Waste company. One of them fell through a skylight and was badly injured. The fire was checked after a loss of $40,000. Soon afterwards the department was called out for a fire in John Crowe & Co.'s hay barns. The buildings and several hundred tons of hay were burned. Adjoining property, including a lively stable, a wooden bridge across the railroad track and ten Canadian Pacific cars, were destroyed, involving a loss of $60,000.

A NEW SANDWICH.

A new kind of ice cream sandwich will soon make its appearance on the streets. It is an English invention, but a hustling vendor has secured the American rights to it and will place it on the market as soon as his factory is in running order. Once the ice cream peddlers sold their wares on a slip of paper, which when the cream was eaten was thrown away. Then the ice cream sandwich, as we know it now, came into being. Now, however, we will have a combination of the two, for the new sandwich is a cracker cup filled with cream. The English process, which bakes the cracker in the form of a cup, also imparts various flavors to it, and the happy street urchin can eat his delicacy without having to throw the receptacle away, as he used to do, and without losing any of the cream by leakage, as is now the case.

MRS. LATTA AFTER MISSING SPOUSE

Says She Will Follow Him to the Gates of Everlasting Doom if Necessary.

Mrs. Charles Latta filed an affidavit against her husband this morning charging him with wife desertion and when told that he could not be brought back from Columbus, O., where he is supposed to be, for the offense she announced that she would go after him and follow him to the gates of a certain well known but indefinite place if necessary.

Moreover she intimated that she would fill the person of her recreant spouse with cold lead or some other foreign substance calculated to hasten his demise in case he refused to return home and bestow his affections as it is the duty of a good husband to do.

It will be recalled that Latta eloped from his home at 517 Purman street several weeks ago with Mrs. Jesse Casteel and that they were captured in Ohio and brought back here. Mrs. Casteel, who had withdrawn the savings of her husband from the bank became penitent and upon her promise to perform her duty she was forgiven and apparently became reconciled to her husband.

About a week ago she again took her departure without a formal leave taking and was again accompanied in her flight by such of the contents of the family exchequer as she could get hold of. Her husband later filed a divorce proceeding that is now pending in the courts. Mrs. Latta explained to Superintendent Gorsline and later to Prosecutor Emrick that she has reason to believe that her husband has gone to Columbus, O., where he has joined Mrs. Casteel.

His property, consisting of a farm upon which the Casteels were tenants and a home in the city are said to have been heavily mortgaged and yesterday when he left he took with him a team which he either used as a means of transportation or sold. The affidavit was filed and a warrant placed in the hands of the sheriff, but as wife desertion is not a felony he is safe so long as he remains outside the borders of the state.

GAS HEATERS ARRIVE.

The gas company has determined to make a series of experiments with heating stoves built with an especial reference to economical combustion of gas, and the first installment of the new stoves arrived this morning. They will be connected up in the company's offices on Court street. Thursday the company attaches began experiments with the cooking stoves, the tests being made with reference to pressure results. Two kettles of water were drawn from a hydrant and placed upon the burners of two ranges. Under a one-ounce pressure one of the kettles of water was brought to a boiling point in thirteen minutes, with a gas consumption of two and one-fourth feet of gas. Upon the other stove, where a four ounce pressure was used, the same quantity of water was boiled in ten minutes, but it required slightly more gas to do it, the amount of gas consumed being two and five-eighths feet. The experiments will be continued along various lines.

MAY BE WITHOUT FUNDS.

Victoria, B. C., May 29.—The crisis continues in the British Columbia legislature and as the opposition defeated the premier's motion to vote supply bills, the province may have to run without funds for some months. Another investigation is to follow the one just closed. Smith Curtis, member for Rossland, moved that a committee investigate charges preferred by a Vancouver newspaper against the premier, to the effect that his firm secured a certain contract by putting in a low tender after he had access to the other bids, while the premier was acting as chief commissioner of lands and works.

PAINÉ'S GELERY COMPOUND

HAS AGAIN AND AGAIN CURED AFTER PHYSICIANS HAVE FAILED.

For years, men and women in every rank and walk of life have been sounding the praises of Paine's Celery Compound, and telling of its victories over disease and death. Those who were most heavily burdened with disease, victims of suffering pronounced incurable by doctors, and who stood on the brink of the grave, are the people who most gratefully remember Prof. Phelps, of Dartmouth College, the eminent physician and scientist who discovered Paine's Celery Compound, the medicine that never fails to conquer blood diseases, dyspepsia, rheumatism, neuralgia, liver and kidney troubles. Mr. F. Marion Sikes, of Crony, N. C., happily rescued from a complication of dangerous ailments, long standing dyspepsia, muscular pains and after results of typhoid fever—nervousness, weakness, watery blood and sluggish circulation, gratefully and thankfully writes for the benefit of thousands of men and women who suffer today. Mr. Sikes says:

"For many years I suffered with dyspepsia. All that I ate did me no good, and I could find nothing that would give me relief. Last year I was taken with a pain in my leg that ran from my hip to the end of my toes. I had as good a doctor as I could find in Wilmington, but he only gave me relief for a while. I was then taken with typhoid fever and my family and friends had given up all hope. A friend of mine, Capt. Walter Taft, advised me to try Paine's Celery Compound as I was so nervous I could not stand alone. I began the use of the wonderful medicine and before I had taken half a bottle I felt like a new man. I have now used two bottles and am today a well man and feel better than I have for ten years. I thank my God for the use of this great and marvelous compound."

OLD SEA FIGHTERS.

It is learned from a Minneapolis newspaper that the "counter-attraction" of a big fire across the river, "with a long dead and injured list," was responsible for the small attendance at a public reception tendered the other day to Captain Charles D. Sigsbee by the mayor of that city. But a pleasant surprise was in store for the naval hero, says the New York Commercial.

"Aye, aye, captain," said Engineer "Bill" E. Renfron, of the Powers Mercantile company, saluting his superior officer as he stood beneath the fine decorations in the almost empty reception room.

"Why, Renfron, how are you?" Captain Sigsbee replied, grasping the brawny hand of the stalwart man whose dark eyes sparkled with the pleasure of the reunion. "I haven't seen you since you left the navy."

"Yes, I was with you as ship's carpenter on board the St. Paul," added Renfron, "and seeing you is almost as good as being back on ship. I came pretty near going with the prize we captured before the Santiago scrap. Remember the night we scuttled that collier? I got $11.75 prize money. What was your rake-off, captain?"

Captain Sigsbee admitted with twinkling eyes that he had to be content with about $9 as his share of the "divvy."

"All the same," said the captain, "the St. Paul rendered the nation a valuable service in putting that collier out of commission. She was on her way with fuel for the Spanish fleet just before Cervera's arrival off the Cuban coast, and if she had been successful the Spanish fleet would have stood a good chance of escaping. It might have changed the fortunes of war. As it was, we captured the collier right under the guns of the fort, and just escaped being blown out of the water. But we didn't lose a man, while the casualties on board the other boat were five killed and two wounded. We had to keep our boat moving all night to dodge torpedoes."

In the evening of the same day there was a well-attended reception to Captain Sigsbee at the Minneapolis club—there being no fire for the Minneapolisians to attend.

REVISION NOW A SETTLED FACT

Presbyterian Assembly Has Adopted the Report of the Committee

THE VOTE WAS UNANIMOUS

The Faith of the Church is Declared to Be Unchanged
by the Revision.

Los Angeles, Cal., May 29.—The Presbyterian church of the United States in general assembly yesterday finally disposed of the question of revision of the creed that has been before the last three general assemblies and which has agitated Presbyterian circles for the past fifteen years. The assembly by unanimous vote adopted the revision of the confession of faith as prepared by the committee appointed by the general assembly in 1901. Besides clearing the calendar of this important question the assembly disposed of the "Tennessee overture" in regard to "separate presbyteries in the same territory," which was commonly known as the "colored question" of the Presbyterian church, and the report of the special committee on divorce and remarriage. Several minor reports also were heard during the day, which on the whole has been the busiest of the assembly's sessions.

DOCTRINES UNCHANGED.
The following declaratory statement, which preceded the reading of the text of the overtures, was adopted:

"While the ordination vow of ministers, ruling elders and deacons as set forth in the form of government requires the reception or adoption of the confession of faith only as containing the system of doctrine taught in the holy scriptures, nevertheless, seeing that the desire has been formally expressed for a disavowal by the church of certain inferences drawn from statements in the confession of faith and also for a declaration of certain aspects of revealed truth which appear at the present time to call for more explicit statement, therefore the Presbyterian church in the United States of America does authoritatively declare as follows:

Then follows the text of changes in the confession of faith.

AGAINST INFANT DAMNATION.
By the adoption of the eleven overtures important additions, amplifications and amendments are made to the articles of the confession of faith. Of these one of the most vital is the erection into the church doctrine of the belief that all who die in infancy are saved, which is embodied in the declaratory statements regarding chapter 3 of the confession of faith and chapter 10, section 3:

"That concerning those who are saved in Christ, the doctrine of God's eternal decree is held in harmony with the doctrine of His love to all mankind, His gift of His Son to be the propitiation for the sins of the whole world and His readiness to bestow His saving grace on all who seek it; that concerning those who perish, the doctrine of God's eternal decree is held in harmony with the doctrine that God desires not the death of any sinner, but has provided in Christ a salvation sufficient for all, adapted for all and freely offered in the gospel to all; that men are fully responsible for their treatment of God's gracious offer; that His decree hinders no man from accepting that offer and that no man is condemned except on the ground of his sin.

"Also that it is not regarded as teaching that any who die in infancy are lost. We believe that all dying in infancy are included in the election of grace and are regenerated and saved by Christ through the spirit, who works where and how he pleases."

For section 6 chapter 20 of the confession of faith the following is substituted:

"The Lord Jesus Christ is the only head of the church and the claim of any man to be the vicar of Christ and the head of the church is unscriptural—without warrant, in fact—and is an usurpation dishonoring to the Lord Jesus Christ."

Three additional chapters are added to the confession concerning the "Love of God for all men, missions and the Holy Spirit."

After the reading and adoption of all the overtures Chairman Van Dyke said he wished to make it clear and especially did he wish to say "to the brethren of the press that this revision does not mean that the Presbyterian church has changed her base one inch, but it does mean that she had broadened and strengthened her foundations. Her divine sovereignty shall never be interpreted so as to mean fatalism."

WORK FINISHED.
The discussion was continued by Dr. H. C. Minton, Dr. C. A. Dickey, Dr. J. W. Paach and others. After brief speeches by Dr. William Henry Roberts and Moderator Coyle, a motion was made by Dr. W. M. Page for the adoption of the report of the revision committee as a whole. The motion prevailed by unanimous vote. Then Moderator Coyle offered a prayer of thankfulness that "this morning's work had marked the consummation of fifteen years' earnest effort in the Presbyterian church."

At the afternoon session the "colored question" was disposed of promptly and without a flurry. Dr. Putnam, from the committee on bills and overtures, reported a simple recommendation that overtures on "separate presbyteries for colored ministers," which had come up from Tennessee and other southern states, be referred to a committee of five, this committee to report to the next general assembly. Dr. Roberts moved an amendment to this resolution giving the colored element in the church representation on this committee and increasing the membership to seven. The amendment was accepted and the resolution was adopted.

SEE PERIL IN DIVORCE EVIL.
The report of the special committee on divorce and remarriage was then taken up. Dr. Charles A. Dickey, chairman, speaking in support of its recommendations. The report was in part as follows:

"The question is serious enough. The state is imperiled, the family is threatened, and the church, the guardian of both, too frequently puts its seal and sanction upon unrighteous relationships, does not refuse its sacrament to those who lightly regard the sacred bonds of marriage and for reasons not recognized in God's word separate themselves and seek new alliances.

"Unless ministers will carefully inform themselves of the social condition of persons proposing marriage and strictly conform to the laws of God regarding divorce and remarriage revealed in the scriptures, and unless professing Christians strictly regard such laws in their own conduct, how can we hope through the influence of the church to correct the evils that are made possible by immoral legislation? The conviction is deepening that something should be done to save society and the state from the terrible consequences of lax legislation, which disregards the law of God and the protests of the church."

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.
The committee recommended the adoption of the following resolution: "Resolved, That this general assembly favors every lawful endeavor to correct the evils of lax legislation regarding the subjects of divorce and remarriage and to secure such uniformity of legislation thereon as may best promote the purity of society."

"Resolved, That this general assembly hereby enjoins all ministers under its care and authority to refuse to perform the marriage ceremony in the cases of divorced persons, except as such persons have been divorced upon grounds and for causes recognized as scriptural in the standards of the Presbyterian church in the United States of America."

"Resolved, That the committee appointed by the general assembly of 1902 is continued, with instructions to diligently pursue the work intrusted to it, and to report to the next general assembly."

There was no discussion of the report, as this had been forestalled by the passage of the resolution enjoining Presbyterian ministers from performing the marriage ceremony in cases of divorced persons at last Monday's session. The report was unanimously adopted.

William Geake, a well known Fort Wayne republican, was here today. Evidently the junior senator from Indiana has made a strong impression on him.
"The republicans of Allen county are sensible men," he said. "They do not believe in changing a certainty for an uncertainty. They know a good thing when they see it and they are in favor of holding on to a good thing just as long as they can. Therefore they are enthusiastically and unitedly for the re-election of Senator Beveridge."

Lipton, Fife and Watson

Sir Thomas to Bring the Two Famous
British Designers
Over to See Cup
Races: Confidence
In Captain Wringe.

Accompanying Sir Thomas Lipton in his third cup hunting visit to American waters will be two men whose efforts to "lift" the silver cup which the schooner America brought here extended over a longer period than even his own.

What the Herreshoffs are to yachting in this country George Watson and William Fife, Jr., stand for in Great Britain. Their brains, backed by the money of patriotic yachtsmen, have engineered every attempt made upon the trophy since the Thistle wrestled vainly for it.

The trio, Sir Thomas Lipton, Wringe and Fife, are associated for the first time in one combination, and the English enthusiast is justly entitled to the hopes of entertainment. Dunraven and Watson, Sir Thomas and Watson and Sir Thomas and Fife have in that order "come very near it," and the new association represents the pluck and science of English yachting as they have never before been amalgamated. During the trial spins of the challenger off Sandy Hook the designers of the craft will watch every move and will send her to the starting line in the first of the races attuned to the test in every bight of her canvas and every strand of her gear.

"Fife of Fairlie" has been a byword of significance in British yacht and ship building for a hundred years. The firm of Fife has existed and flourished during that period. It was left to William Fife, Jr., however, to make the name an international one. Fife's small boats had been remarkably successful during many years before he made his first venture with a vessel of the cup hunting type. His was the first Shamrock, and in her he showed the first radical departure from the strictly English model that had been defeated so many times that its futility was clearly proved, on this side of the water at least.

In adopting the feature of the model that made the American yacht so distinct in contrast with the challengers Fife incurred adverse criticism, but the races justified him, and he blazed the way that has since been followed to a point where, it is believed, the challenger will show as little difference from the defender that, to a layman, they might have come from the same board.

Fife would not attempt a second Shamrock, and the order was given to Watson, who proceeded along the same lines. Both designers were urged to collaborate on the third of Sir Thomas' challengers, and the result will be proved off Sandy Hook in August.

In selecting Captain Bob Wringe to handle the product of the best two designers that Great Britain boasts Sir Thomas is backed by both architects and the yachting authorities of his country in the opinion that he has a skipper who can get all out of the craft she has in her. Captain Wringe is no stranger to the Sandy Hook course or to attempts upon the cup.

thusiastic yachtsman, on July 30, 1844. The first meeting was held aboard the schooner Glimcrack, belonging to him. There were nine gentlemen present, and from this unpretentious genesis sprang the present flourishing club, boasting one of the most handsome clubhouses in the world, with 1,619 members and a squadron of 424 vessels.

The first clubhouse was erected in the Elysian fields, overlooking Hoboken, N. J., and was opened to the members in 1845. It was a small, unpretentious building of one floor, picturesque to a certain degree, but possessing very limited accommodations. The first regatta in America was celebrated on July 17 of the same year and created widespread interest. The venture was attended with conspicuous success.

In 1868 Hoboken sprang into existence as a busy industrial center, and as the natural surroundings of the clubhouses the club transferred its headquarters to a more commodious villa on Staten Island. A little later, owing to increasing membership, a larger building was acquired there, and in 1871 the club migrated to New York and established itself near Madison square.

It is popularly believed that the first yacht race between England and America was determined in 1861, when the America succeeded in winning the cup, but such is not the case. The first race between the two countries was decided in 1840 between the Brenda of the New York Yacht club and the Pearl, the famous cutter belonging to the Marquis of Anglesey. The latter vessel, which was built at Wyvenhoe, in Essex, in 1820, was the fastest boat sailing in English waters, but she was badly beaten by the American boat.

The report recently gained circulation that the yacht America, first winner of the international yachting cup, is to be sold and broken up for souvenirs. Congressman Ames of Lowell, Mass., owner of the yacht, has denied that there was any truth in the reports. He said:

"The America has not been sold and will not be sold. I have seen the stories published and cannot imagine where they originated, especially the one which says that the yacht will be broken up and pieces of her distributed as souvenirs. We have not the slightest intention of doing anything of the kind. The yacht will not be placed in commission, and for the present she will remain where she is, tied up between the Chelsea bridges, near Boston."

THROWING THE BALL.

How Players Differ in Their Tossing Methods.

Tom Brown, the once famous player and later a National league umpire, has the following to say concerning the difference in the throwing of players:

"Some players throw what is known as a heavy ball, while others have a throw that carries the ball just as far and just as true, but the sphere that shoots from their hands falls in the glove as light as a thistle-down falling on a carpet. In his book, 'A Ball Player's Career,' 'Uncle' Anson explains that Ed Williamson and Tom Burns threw the light ball which shot through the air true as a bullet and fell softly into the hand, soft as a bird lighting on the ground. Billy Sunday, on the contrary, had what I call the heavy throw, and the sphere fell in the grasp of the player at the other end with a thud and weight of a chunk of lead.

"This apparently strange phenomenon Anson says he cannot explain. He will leave it to the scientists. I can account for it easy enough. Burns and Williamson, in dismissing the ball, used a snappy, jerky toss, a sort of half swing, getting the ball away from them like a flash. Sunday, on the contrary, gathered himself for a full arm swing and every fiber of his back and forearm muscles was behind the sphere as it shot heavily, sluggishly from him. It was the weight of the muscles behind the throw that made the ball feel like lead as it fell to the player to whom it was thrown. Jim O'Rourke threw the heaviest ball I know of.

"There was power of muscle behind Jim's throw, and when he threw to the plate the ball came to the catcher on the fly and a twinge of pain shot through the arm of the backstop in the old days before they wore the heavy glove. Anson Ruse's terrific swing carried the impression of lead to the player at the receiving end of the circuit; Anson's ponderosity of brawn did it."

NAME STATIONS ON ROBISON PARK LINE

Trolley Cars Will Hereafter
Make Stops Only at Designated Points.

Electric cars upon the Robison park line will hereafter make stops only at designated points along the line, instead of at any point desired by passengers as has been the custom heretofore. To carry out this plan the Traction company has designated nine stations along the park line, and passengers who desire to leave or take the cars at any point beyond Centerville park except at Robison park itself must do so at one of the designated stations. These are as follows:

Station No. 1.—Centerville park.
Station No. 2.—At Pole No. 1, across canal.
Station No. 3.—At Pole No. 56, near Drake residence.

Station No. 4.—At Pole No. 87, the first Bleke farm.

Station No. 5.—At Pole No. 95, the second Bleke farm.

Station No. 6.—At Pole No. 131, the gravel pit.

Station No. 7.—At Pole No. 157, the paper mill bridge.

Station No. 8.—At Pole No. 222, the canal crossing.

Station No. 9.—At Pole 243, Mr. Scott's residence.

As soon as the new tracks are placed in service the Robison park cars will enter the city as is now the case over Superior and Calhoun streets, but will then make the round of the new Clinton street loop. General Manager Scott says that this makes a considerable additional distance for the cars to travel, and that the station arrangement out upon the line is established in order to save running time for the cars.

REAL SENSIBLE IDEA

Druggists Meyer Bros. Co. says Mi-o-na's Plan is the Only Fair One.

Meyer Bros. Co., the popular druggists, have been in the drug business long enough to have their own opinion of the best way of selling medicines.

They say the plan adopted by Mi-o-na, the great dyspepsia cure, is the fairest they have ever heard of.

They do not believe that a medicine ought to be paid for unless it does the user some good.

And Mi-o-na is sold under a positive guarantee to cure dyspepsia or to refund the money. You simply leave 50 cents on deposit with Meyer Bros. Co. and if after you have used the box of Mi-o-na you decide that it has done you no good, all you have to do is to tell them so and they will return your money.

Thousands of people have been cured of dyspepsia by using this remarkable remedy. It is not simply a food digester; it is a medicine that puts all of the digestive organs into normal condition and gives ruddy, glowing, vigorous health. A change for the better will be seen from the first few doses of Mi-o-na, and its continued use will soon give the power to eat anything at any time and not suffer distress afterwards.

Mi-o-na is the only dyspepsia remedy upon the market that is sold under a positive guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure. This is the strongest proof that can be offered as to the merit of the medicine.

NIP IT IN THE BUD.

First Appearance of Dandruff a Forerunner of Future Baldness.

That such is the case has been conclusively proven by scientific research. Prof. Unna, the noted European skin specialist, declares that dandruff is the burrowed-up cuticle of the scalp, caused by parasites destroying the vitality in the hair bulb. The hair becomes lifeless, and, in time, falls out. This can be prevented.

Newbro's Herpicide kills this dandruff germ, and restores the hair to its natural softness and abundance.

Herpicide is now used by thousands of people—all satisfied that it is the most wonderful hair preparation on the market today.

"Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Pellerin & Polster, special agents."

SCROFULA A DISEASE WE INHERIT.

Scrofula manifests itself in many ways. Swelling of the glands of the neck and throat, Catarrh, weak eyes, white swelling, offensive sores and abscesses, skin eruptions, loss of strength and weakness in muscles and joints. It is a miserable disease and traceable in almost every instance to some family blood taint.

Scrofula is bred in the bone, is transmitted from parent to child, the seeds are planted in infancy and unless the blood is purged and purified and every atom of the taint removed Scrofula is sure to develop at some period in your life.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild, when only 18 months old, and spread rapidly over her body. The disease next attacked the eyes and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent. It was then that we decided to try S. S. S. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

150 South 5th Street.

MRS. EUTH BARKLY, Salina, Kan.

No remedy equals S. S. S. as a cure for Scrofula. It cleanses and builds up the blood, makes it rich and pure, and under the tonic effects of this great Blood Remedy, the general health improves, the digestive organs are strengthened, and there is a gradual but sure return to health. The deposit of tubercular matter in the joints and glands is carried off as soon as the blood is restored to a normal condition, and the sores, eruptions, and other symptoms of Scrofula disappear.

S. S. S. is guaranteed purely vegetable and harmless; an ideal blood purifier and tonic that removes all blood taint and builds up weak constitutions. Our physicians will advise without charge, all who write us about their case. Book mailed free.

The Day on Wall Street.

New York, May 29.—First prices for stocks showed fractional gains over last night ranging to ¼ for the leading issues. Rock Island preferred and Denver and Rio Grande preferred advanced about a point, St. Paul ½ and Sugar ¼. The dealings were not on a large scale. A better tone in the London market helped the advance here.

The undercurrent of firmness to the market did not arouse any pronounced demand for stocks. Buying went on cautiously in various stocks, but an accumulation of the general list was checked by the pressure of stock in Amalgamated and Rock Island after they had risen slightly. St. Paul rose to 150 and its advance helped toward more strength in other leading stocks. The specialties made a better showing than the railroads, Anaconda advancing 4 and Sugar, Smelting, Colorado Fuel, Tennessee Coal, Manhattan, Leather preferred, Realty preferred and North American 1½. New Jersey Central also gained 3 and Hocking Valley 1. The market was very uneven at 11 o'clock, the decline in Amalgamated, U. S. Steel preferred and Rock Island affecting some stocks; while others showed support.

Pressure continued against Rock Island and Amalgamated, which lost 1½ and 1½ respectively. The general market was depressed in sympathy. National Railroad of Mexico, North-western, Colorado and Southern and Metropolitan Street railway lost 1. Lead preferred ¼ and Consolidated Gas ½. Prices steadied before the appearance of the bank statement, hesitated for a time afterwards and then declined again to about the lowest. The small loan reduction in view of the stock market liquidation of the week was considered unsatisfactory.

Scarcely any variation from the noon prices was made until the sluggishness of the market rather than any pressure forced the list off. Transcontinental stocks all reached a lower level and point losses were scored by Union Pacific, Louisville, Erie first preferred, U. S. Steel preferred, Brooklyn Transit and a few minor stocks.

A further slight dip in the Pacific brought Southern Pacific within the range of 1-point losses, but the general list was inanimate. A recovery of a point from the lowest in Amalgamated started some demand for other important stocks and the list recovered a good fraction all around.

Losses of 1½ to 2½ were made in Third Avenue, Pump preferred and Kansas and Texas preferred. Stoss-Sheffield Steel preferred lost 2. Some small short accounts were covered pending the holiday and prices hardened a shade. Rubber Goods preferred rose a point. Later the drift was downward again, in some cases to the lowest.

WILL PAY TRIBUTE TO SOLDIER DEAD

Annual Decoration Day Observance Tomorrow—Outline of the Program.

Tomorrow is Decoration day, and in accordance with its invariable custom Fort Wayne people will unite in its observance, strewing with flags and flowers the graves of the soldier dead, and honoring in pageantry, in music and in eloquence the priceless heritage of their memories.

Capt. J. B. White camp, Sons of Veterans, has been in charge of the preparations for the day, and all arrangements are made for a most notable observance of the revered anniversary. At 7 o'clock tomorrow morning details of veteran soldiers will meet at the Elektron building and from thence move to the various cemeteries to place upon the graves of the silent victors the flags and a wealth of floral bloom and verdure.

Exercises will be held at Lawton park at 10 o'clock a. m., the veterans marching to that point. George Behler will be the presiding officer, and the monument will be appropriately draped with floral emblems. Rev. Lewis Rehl, of St. Paul M. E. church, will deliver the invocation, and addresses are to be made by Rev. Robert H. Clark, of the Free Methodist church, and by Capt. T. W. Blair. Rev. R. D. Spellman will pronounce the benediction.

PARADE IN AFTERNOON.

The annual parade will move promptly at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, with Capt. W. F. Geller as chief marshal, the assistant marshals reporting at the New Avenue hotel an hour earlier. The line of march will be east on Berry street to Barr, south on Barr to Wayne, west on Wayne to Calhoun, north on Calhoun to Columbus, west on Columbus to Harrison, south on Harrison to Berry, west on Berry to Rockhill, north on Rockhill to Main, and west on Main to Lindenwood. The Fort Wayne City band, the Wayne Tent band and Shober's First Regiment band will furnish the music.

Major John E. Miller, commanding the military division in the parade, today appointed the following officers to act on his staff:

Major W. W. Barnett, chief of staff.
Capt. W. F. Ranke, quartermaster general.
Capt. O. C. Meyer, inspector general.

Capt. J. B. Fanner, chief of ordnance.
Capt. C. E. Barnett, chief medical officer.

Lieut. O. S. Jones, adjutant general.
Lieut. W. S. McLeod, commissary general.

On account of the torn-up condition of West Main street this division will form on Webster street, right resting on Berry street. Other divisions and formation of the parade will be in accordance with the program previously printed in The Sentinel.

AT LINDENWOOD.

Mayor H. C. Berghoff will preside at the exercises at Lindenwood cemetery, which will open with services for the unknown dead. James Liggett will give Lincoln's Gettysburg address, and the special service will close with a military salute. Mayor Berghoff will deliver the opening address at the grandstand, and Rev. J. Webster Bailey will offer prayer. The principal address of the day is to be given by Hon. Charles B. Landis, of Delphi, one of the most eloquent of Indiana's representatives in congress. The Emerson male quartet will render a number of vocal selections during the afternoon.

This evening Anthony Wayne post No. 271, G. A. R., will hold its memorial campfire at Vordermark hall, with addresses, music and appropriate exercises in honor of the deceased members of the post, who number thirty-one. Six of these have passed away during the last year: Rev. Henry B. Fry, Capt. Philemon Dickinson, Col. C. B. Oakley, Samuel Golden, W. E. Angevine and Elisia J. Smith.

SYMPATHETIC STRIKES TABOOED

Trainmen's Convention Votes
Unanimously Against Them.

SUCCESSOR TO CASANAVE

J. E. Muhlfeld, of Newark Division, Receives the Appointment.

Denver, Col., May 29.—The first positive declaration of a large labor body against the sympathetic strike has been made by the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, now in national convention in this city. It was made in the form of a resolution which received unanimous approval by the delegates, based upon sentiments expressed in the annual address of Grand Master Morrissey. The portion of the address which inspired the resolution and which when uttered by the grand master aroused ringing cheers of approval from those present was as follows:

"The question of its ability to protect its working agreements is now a prominent factor in determining the responsibility of a labor organization in the business and employing world. The organization that represents employees in making an arrangement that is acceptable to them and shrinks responsibility when individuals or rivals disturb the peaceful relations between employees and employer is not of the type that will command confidence in our progressive civilization and the enlightened trend of the relations between capital and labor.

"While the question of the protection of the labor contract is in its infancy and education of the great mass of the unionists along these lines is necessarily slow, still we predict that we shall see the time when we will regard the contract breaker, whether member or non-member, with as much contempt as we now do the scab."

In the beneficial or insurance department the losses for death and disability that were paid amounted to $1,070,790. Of these claims 1,075 were for deaths and 478 for disability—a total of 1,553.

Reports of other grand officers have been received and accepted by the convention.

CASANAVE'S SUCCESSOR.

Baltimore, Md., May 29.—It was officially announced by the Baltimore & Ohio railroad today that it had been decided to create a new division comprising the line between Butler and Kane, Pa., and it will be known as the Butler division. A portion of the division is narrow gauge and it has been a part of the Pittsburgh division. J. A. Spielman, division engineer of the Chicago division, will be the superintendent, with headquarters at Foxburg, Pa.

J. E. Muhlfeld, superintendent of motive power at Newark, Ohio, has been promoted to the position of general superintendent of motive power succeeding F. D. Casanave.

GOOD DETECTIVE WORK.

Thomas Wilkinson, of the Nickel Plate, did a little detective work this week which speaks in praise of his ability in that line and at the same time placed three men where they will not be able to commit any more depredations for awhile. Last Wednesday morning a car loaded with merchandise from the east was found open when the train arrived here and Mr. Wilkinson's attention was attracted to it. He found that the seal had been broken and that about a dozen of the boxes in the car had been broken open and the goods scattered about. In checking the cargo Mr. Wilkinson found that a keg of whisky and a quantity of socks were missing, and he started east in search of the parties who did the stealing. At the water tank at Payne, Ohio, the detective found three tramps who were considerably under the influence of liquor. The trio was arrested and marched to the calaboose, where the clothing of the men was searched and a number of the stolen socks were found. At the camping place of the tramps the detective found a coffee pot containing about a quart of whisky, but failed to locate the keg. The boxes in the car had been broken open by stamping them and the heel of the shoe of the fellow who did this work had a steel plate on it. The shoe of one of the men arrested had such a plate, which exactly fitted the indentures on the box lids, proving that the owner of the shoe was the guilty party. A charge of burglary was lodged against the tramps and the mayor of Payne bound each over to the grand jury of Paulding county and they were taken to Paulding and lodged in jail.

INSTALLING AN ENGINE.

Another portion of the low pressure side of the big engine at the Spy Run Electric Power plant left the Bass shops this morning and early next week the big cylinder and last portion to leave the factory will be taken there and installed. When completed the engine of which this is a part will be a cross compound of 1500-horse power capacity. The high pressure part of the machine was erected at the power plant last summer and has been in constant use since, running as a simple engine. This is the largest engine now in service in the city. The next greatest engine is the 900-horse power machine in the Street Car Power plant.

WILL SETTLE WAGE MATTERS.

The wage situation at the several freight houses in Fort Wayne has taken a more pacific aspect than it showed a few days ago. The freight handlers have presented their petitions to their respective bosses for an increase and tomorrow afternoon the agents will meet to formulate a reply. It is understood that this reply will contain a proposition which will be an increase in wages and will, it is believed, be satisfactory to the employees. No trouble is apprehended here, though news from some of the larger cities indicates that trouble is expected in some of them.

WILL HOLD A JOINT MEETING.

The executive board of the Railway Carnival association held a meeting last evening to transact some business concerning the coming exhibition. It was decided to call an open meeting of the Trainmen and Firemen brotherhoods in Trainmen's hall for next Wednesday evening to consider some matters which the executive board wishes to refer to the brotherhoods. Arrangements for the carnival go merrily on and the indications point to a great success.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beekner will leave tomorrow morning for St.

Louis, where they will reside in the future. Mr. Beekner, who is a moulder, has secured a good position in that city. He was formerly employed at the Fort Wayne Electric works.

Read Gets the Office.

A bulletin announces the appointment of Samuel L. Reed general paymaster of the Wabash, vice A. M. Harrison, deceased. Mr. Reed has been connected with the Wabash for some years and when the system was divided into two paymaster districts he had charge of the western end. He will now have charge of the entire system. He made the trip for May and reached the various distributing points on schedule time.

Increased the Taxes.

At a meeting of the county auditors in Canton last Wednesday, the valuation of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago road was increased to an extent that it will add over $100,000 to the tax duplicate in Starke county alone. The valuation of the Cleveland and Massillon road was also raised from $3,500 per mile to $4,000.

The proposed road opens up a section of Florida that is now a wilderness.

Confide in a Woman

Women may write about their ills to Mrs. Pinkham, and avoid the questioning of a male physician. They can tell their story without reservation to her; she never breaks a confidence, and her advice is the best in the world.

The questions asked of a woman by a male physician are embarrassing, and often revolting to a sensitive nature. In consequence the whole truth is not told; this makes it difficult for female troubles to be successfully treated even by the best physicians, and is the reason so many women grow worse rather than better. A woman understands a woman better than a man,—there are symptoms which sick women have that a man cannot understand, simply because he is a man, but the whole truth may be told to Mrs. Pinkham, and her vast experience enables her to give advice which leads to a cure.

All women who suffer should secure Mrs. Pinkham's advice; it costs nothing but a letter addressed to her at Lynn, Mass. Female troubles are real troubles, and must be treated understandingly. For a quarter of a century Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound have been helping women to get strong and well, and her great file of letters prove that more than a million women have been restored to health and strength by her advice and her medicine when all other means have failed.

When you go to a druggist for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, do not let him persuade you to try something which he says is just as good; there is nothing just as good, because Mrs. Pinkham's medicine holds the record for the largest number of cures of any female medicine in the world.

As He Would Do

SOME time ago a newspaper in Kansas was run for one week as Christ would run it. For one month, during June, we will conduct our grocery store on the same principle.

Our Plan is This:

Each day after our cash register shows receipts of $25 every article in the store will be sold for actual cost.

At all times the bills showing just what each article costs us will be on file where customers will have access to them and can satisfy themselves that they are buying goods for cost.
